

Wanted—No Day Maryland Man Says Industry Is Necessary.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 26.—(AP)—WILL WORK without pay—Having sufficient means of support, an infirm but very good and intelligent man desires some useful and pleasant employment. He is a native of Maryland, 40 years of age, single, and has a high school education. He is a native of Maryland, 40 years of age, single, and has a high school education. He is a native of Maryland, 40 years of age, single, and has a high school education.

That in the twentieth century days of grasping and greed and money making there should be a man not only willing to work without pay, but anxious to do so, is enough to cause more than passing comment.

Yet such a man really exists in T. B. Taylor, of Elliptic City, whose advertisement announced his unusual desire. In referring to his proposition to work without pay, Mr. Taylor said:

"My case illustrates the human need of employment, as God recognized and provided for it. He gave sinless and noble man the Garden of Eden to dress and keep."

"And industry seems to be a divine characteristic, for Jesus said: 'My Father worketh hitherto and I work.' So man was created to work, and God pronounces a curse upon the indolent, commanding the barren tree to be cut down, saying: 'Why also cumbereth it the ground?'"

I have two feeble-minded brothers who are examples of this need of employment. The poor dear fellows are eager for work, and have appealed to me often in their peculiar way for the pleasure of simply doing something.

"Owing to a partial paralysis, I have been obliged to cease from regular employment and to depend on my brothers, support from relatives. This kindly support has been continued as long as we have needed it, but we only need employment for its own sake."

Mr. Taylor is a man of evident intelligence and cultivated manners.
